Who We Are

About Us

Our attorneys and staff work to create opportunities for the most vulnerable individuals and families to find their path out of poverty, live independently, and contribute to making our society a better place for all of us to live.

Florida Rural Legal Services, Inc. was founded in 1966 as a private, non-profit corporation. FRLS provides free civil legal assistance to low-income families in thirteen counties within Central and South Florida: Hardee, Highlands, Polk, Charlotte, Desoto, Glades, Hendry, Lee, Martin, Okeechobee, Indian River, St. Lucie and Palm Beach. FRLS also provides legal assistance to migrants/farmworkers throughout the state of Florida.

HOUSING LAW

FRLS may provide free legal assistance for those being unfairly evicted, protect renters with disabilities, combat unlawful fees, secure safe housing conditions, stop illegal lockouts and shutoffs, preserve public housing, defend mortgage foreclosures, terminations of tenancy, and more.

Emergency Rental Assistance (ERA)

FRLS in partnership with county, state and/or federal funding has access to assist with ERA. Most ERA provide rental and utilities assistance for past due payments up to 12 months; and 3 months future rental assistance to those who have been impacted by Covid-19. The ERA program is currently available in:

- Polk County
- Palm Beach County

MIGRANT/FARMWORKERS

FRLS provides education, legal information, advice, and representation to eligible workers in the areas of employment, benefits, immigration, housing, safety as well as other civil legal issues that directly impact agricultural workers living throughout the state.

PUBLIC BENEFITS

FRLS provides a safety net of basic living necessities for the most vulnerable people; seniors on fixed incomes; persons with disabilities; homeless veterans; and children. FRLS helps prevent the loss or reduction of their public benefits. Such as:

- Social Security Benefits
- Food Stamps Termination
- Unemployment Issues
- Disability Benefits Termination

COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT (CED)

FRLS and FAMU Law partnership has launched the CED Law Clinic. The Clinic offers free legal assistance to qualifying seed and early stage food industry entrepreneurs in need but unable to afford an attorney on their own.

The CED program includes the Heirs' Property Prevention and Resolution because farmers need land to cultivate their products, and probate expenses are an economic barrier in a lot of minority communities. The program provides services for the following and more:

- Article of Incorporation
- Assignment and Agreement to Assign
- Copyright
