MARIE LABROSSE BIO

1987 began Marie's Florida adventure. Leaving the comfort of 40 below winters on the Mesabi Iron Range area of NE Minnesota to the cool warm gulf breezes of Charlotte County, Marie was transferred from Hibbing, MN to the Fort Myers Kmart Store, then Englewood, and finally Murdock. In 1998 she joined her husband, Sheldon, with their own company, Charlotte Well Drilling. Before joining Kmart in 1979, Marie ran the second largest Men's Bowling tournament in the State of Minnesota from 1972-1979. Marie was on the State Board for the WIBC and a representative at the national level. Marie was a manager for Kmart from 1979-1998.

Marie had been a precinct clerk in Charlotte County for many years. After Hurricane Charley destroyed many polling locations, Marie was assigned as a SUPER Precinct Clerk presiding over 11 precincts. Marie was recently on the advisory board of the Volunteer Reception Center, an after disaster team in Charlotte County helping place volunteers in needed areas as part of Emergency Management.

Marie was the parent representative on the Charlotte County Schools Calendar Committee for 7 years, SAC chairperson at Liberty Elementary School, Port Charlotte Middle School, and was a SAC member at PCHS. Marie was appointed to Superintendent Dr. Gayler's District Committee. Marie became a substitute teacher for a few years to be able to make educated decisions seeing both parent and educator viewpoints.

Marie is past president of the Charlotte Players, founder of Comedy for a Cause, their signature fundraiser and helped develop their Kids OnStage program. Marie was instrumental in developing a children's theater program Kids OnStage with the Charlotte Players, the 56 year old community theater group. Marie facilitated the move into their new building coordinating and facilitating over 350 volunteers through the Give a Day, Get a Disney Day program. Marie was a recipient of the Charlotte Players 2009 David Lee award. She, also, adjudicated for District High School Theater competitions.

In 2007 Marie was named one of the top 20 Community Minded Women in the United States. Marie was, also, nominated as one of the top five real women for a Relly Award from Live with Regis and Kelly. Marie is a Leadership Charlotte Class of 2011 Alumni and has served as chair of the steering committee for Arts and Tourism Day. She, also, served as the Chair for the North Port Leadership Arts night. Marie is a proud graduate and alumni of Gulf Coast Leadership Institute Class of 2013. Marie has, also, been nominated for the Leadership Hall of Fame in Charlotte County.

Recently retired Marie from co-owning Charlotte Well Drilling for over 20 years. Marie promotes Tourism in Charlotte County on the Green Hibiscus Trolley giving Historical and Mural Tours. She is a Board Member and Radio show host of "Kaleidoscope of the Arts" about the arts and artists and "Sleuthing Eye Opening Tales of the Past" about history for WKDW 97.5FM, an all volunteer 501C3 community radio station. Marie is active in Toastmasters and is a Past President. She currently Chairs the Murdock Village Advisory Committee for Charlotte County. She is a representative to the Charlotte County Chamber North Port Chamber, former ambassador of the Charlotte Desoto Builders Association, member of the Punta Gorda Historical Society, Business Professional Women's, Visual Arts, North Port Art Center, Charlotte Arts and Humanities, Historic Spanish Point, WKDW 97.5FM, and is a United Way of Charlotte County Ambassador which she was named Ambassador of the year 2020.
